

Josh Brockway, Northern Ohio District Church of the Brethren Guest Speaker

We welcome Rev. Dr. Joshua Brockway serves the Church of the Brethren as denominational staff for spiritual life and discipleship. His work includes oversight of a network of over 60 spiritual directors and polity related to congregational ethics. He also prepares resources and lead workshops on stewardship, spiritual practices, Brethren identity, and worship. Joshua earned his Master of Arts in Theology from Bethany Theological Seminary, his Master of Divinity from Candler School of Theology, and Ph.D. in Early Church History from The Catholic University of America. He lives in Elgin Illinois with his wife and four children.